

Course Outline

Scope of Practice

Course Description

This 45 minute training is designed for all nurses working in Remote Nursing Stations in BC. It covers Certified and non-certified Remote Practice, use of the 3 practice Resources to stay within scope and information on requirements for performing PAPS/pelvic exams, immunizations and suturing.

Prerequisites

- None

Training/Learning Outcomes

After completion of this course participants will be able to:

- Identify the difference between Certified and Non-certified Practice in BC
- Identify which resources must be used to guide practice and determine scope
- Identify the step-wise approach to using the practice resources
- Identify the requirements for providing PAPS/pelvic exams in BC
- Identify the requirements for providing immunizations in BC
- Identify the requirements for providing suturing in BC

Target Audience

- This learning is applicable to nurses working in Remote Practice in BC

Training Delivery

- Training is available online

Session Content

- Understanding Certified vs Non-Certified Practice in BC
- Education process for becoming remote certified
- How to use the practice resources to guide history taking, assessment, planning and follow-up
- How to use the practice resources to stay within your scope of practice in BC
- Requirements for providing PAPS/pelvic exams, immunizations and suturing in BC

Facilitator/Trainer Info

- Rural/Remote Practice Team

TO REGISTER

- Register for this training through the Learning Space in the Gathering Space Portal, Talent Management.